

From: Collinge, Douglas TRAN:EX
To: 'microsoft.atr(a)usdoj.gov'
Date: 1/23/02 2:44pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I am a Canadian but the Microsoft monopoly is a global issue. The software market is so perverted by Microsoft's business practices that it will be impossible to call it a "free market" for years, regardless of the remedies ultimately imposed. The current proposed "remedy" is nothing more than a license for Microsoft to continue business as usual, which will eventually result in extension of their monopoly to nearly every aspect of the Internet infrastructure.

Douglas J. Collinge,
Victoria, BC,
Canada